Discipling Missionaries

In March, it was exciting to hang out with these leaders in Springfield, MO, at Candidate Orientation. Pictured are the 18 new candidates and their wives, along with the national staff and the commissioned fully-funded Nationally Appointed missionaries. YOUR partnership puts me in the lives of each of these missionaries to disciple them while they raise their funding! I meet with them on a weekly basis for about a year. It's tremendous to see all that God does in their hearts throughout this process.

It was great to meet Pastor Choco (front row, fourth from the right), the newly appointed US Missions Director, and to hear his heart for helping us reach college students for Christ. He's "hit the ground running" to understand our national ministry and is bringing tremendous leadership to help take our missions organization to the next level.

Thank you for your prayer and financial investment to help place missionaries on university campuses across America!

Have an ENJOYABLE summer!
